

Mission Trip: Guatemala

There is a 30-minute presentation available on request. There will be two groups going down. The two groups will merge on the way to San Lucas Toliman. Here is the website for the San Lucas Mission.

Their website is <https://sanlucasmission.org/>

The first group will leave MSP on Thursday March 12, 2020 to arrive at Guatemala City. That group will stay in Antiqua until Tuesday March 17, 2020. At that time, the second group will arrive at Guatemala City. A van from the San Lucas Mission will pick them up.

On Tuesday March 24, 2020 both groups will travel from the San Lucas Mission back to Guatemala City and on home to Minnesota.

There will be an orientation gathering some time in February.

The weather is sunny. The temperature is between 55 and 80 degrees. Here is the wiki article on San Lucas Toliman. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/San_Lucas_Tolimán

The cost for tickets is about $670 round trip (this does not include baggage charges). The cost is about $40 for a place to sleep and food per day. There are currently eight people committed to this trip. If you are interested in coming along contact Dcn Bruce Geyer at DcnBruce.Geyer@gmail.com or call him at 320-616-1213.
